BIRGA TOUR – Company Introduction

Birga Tour is a locally owned Mongolian travel company providing comprehensive domestic and international (inbound & outbound) tourism services, with our guests' comfort, safety, and satisfaction as our top priorities.

Since 2002, our company has been welcoming international tourists to Mongolia. Over the years, we have grown into a trusted and highly regarded travel company, earning positive recognition from travelers for our professional and reliable services.

Since 2023, we have been developing and offering medical tourism products that incorporate comprehensive health and wellness programs for Mongolian travelers.

As part of these programs, travelers can dedicate one full day of their trip to a comprehensive health check-up, receive professional consultations from specialist doctors, and, when necessary, undergo appropriate medical treatments.

Through these initiatives, we are continuously expanding and developing our health and medical tourism services to provide Mongolian travelers with opportunities to combine travel with professional healthcare and wellness services.

Mission

To develop Mongolia into a key destination and hub in the global tourism industry.

Vision

To become a leading company contributing to the development and enhancement of Mongolia's tourism industry through environmentally responsible and sustainable tourism practices.

Core Values

- High ethical standards, honesty, and reliability
- A professional and competent team with effective collaboration
- Discovering and implementing new ideas and innovative approaches
- Prioritizing tourist safety and environmental protection
- Transparent and democratic management principles
